

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information, Contact:

Daniela Castillo, Marketing Communications Coordinator
Robinson & Cole LLP
860-541-2717
dcastillo@rc.com

Robinson & Cole Business Development and Marketing Professional Elected to Board of Directors for The Shelter For Women

Hartford — July 29, 2008 — The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that Dana L. Foster, Business Development & Marketing Specialist in the Hartford office, was elected to the Board of Directors for The Shelter for Women. Ms. Foster's term began in June.

Ms. Foster has been a marketing professional with the firm for over two years. Prior to legal marketing she practiced law for more than three years at a Hartford based law firm. Ms. Foster is an active participant in the Hartford community where she is a co-chair of the Hartford Stage's SpringBoard young professionals group, and represents SpringBoard on Hartford Stage's Development Council, and is also a co-chair of the Hartford City Group Chapter of the New England Legal Marketing Association. Ms. Foster earned her JD from Boston College and her MBA from the University of Connecticut and is currently a candidate for her Masters in Organizational Behavior at the University of Hartford.

The Shelter for Women (SFW) is a non-profit organization committed to providing excellent residential treatment and educational services for at-risk girls and young women, ages 13 to 21. SFW is the oldest residential treatment program in Connecticut exclusively for girls. To learn more, please visit its web site at <http://www.shelterforwomen.org/>.