

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Daniela Castillo, Marketing Communications Coordinator
Robinson & Cole LLP
(860) 541-2717, dcastillo@rc.com

Attorney Advertising

Robinson & Cole Announces New Counsel

HARTFORD, CT (January 26, 2010) – The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce the election of four new counsel.

Stephen E. Cooper is a member of the Business Transactions Group. He represents clients in all aspects of corporate and transactional law, including venture capital and private equity financings, debt financings, recapitalizations, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, securities law compliance, and general corporate matters. As a member of the Emerging Companies, Private Equity, and Venture Capital Practice Group, he also represents fast growth companies with their formation, employee compensation arrangements, debt and equity financings, and commercial contracts. Mr. Cooper received his B.A. from Emory University and his J.D., with honors, from The George Washington University Law School.

Danielle Andrews Long is a member of the Real Estate Litigation and Title Insurance Group. Ms. Long's practice involves real estate litigation, representation of title insurance companies and their insureds on policy claims, and litigation of zoning appeals. She also defends property and business owners in construction litigation. Ms. Long received her B.A. from the College of the Holy Cross and her J.D., magna cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School, where she was chief book note editor of the Suffolk Transnational Law Review.

Christopher R. Perry is a member of the Litigation Section. His practice focuses on insurance coverage and white-collar criminal defense. He represents insurers nationwide in matters ranging from presuit counseling to complex coverage litigation involving Hurricane Katrina. He has also conducted internal corporate investigations and has represented individuals and business organizations with investigations involving taxes, public officials, insurance, and maritime and environmental laws. Mr. Perry received his B.A., cum laude, in international studies from American University and his J.D., with honors, from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where he was editor in chief of the Connecticut Law Review.

280 Trumbull Street, Hartford, CT 06103

Page 2
Press release
January 26, 2010

David E. Ross is a member of the Business Litigation Group. Mr. Ross represents clients in various commercial disputes, including prosecuting and defending claims for breach of contract, securities fraud, theft of trade secrets and domain names, copyright laws, fraud, failure to warn, strict products liability, land use disputes, and other causes of action. He represents publicly traded health care companies, real estate investment trusts, book publishers, nutritional companies, and manufacturers of commercial and consumer appliances. Mr. Ross received his B.A., cum laude, in philosophy and political science from Binghamton University and his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has 250 attorneys and 250 professional staff in nine offices to serve regional, national, and global business clients in multiple practice areas, as well as individual clients, governmental, and nonprofit entities. Further information is available at rc.com.

###