Robinson & Cole Attorney Joey Lee Miranda Joins Lawyers for Children America's Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (July 23, 2012) – Lawyers for Children America elected energy and utilities partner Joey Lee Miranda to its board of directors on June 6, 2012. Lawyers for Children America, based in Connecticut, is a nonprofit child advocacy organization providing pro bono legal representation to protect the rights of children who are victims of abuse, abandonment, and neglect.

Joey Lee Miranda's practice focuses on energy, telecommunications, environmental, toxic tort, and utilities matters, including litigation, transactional and regulatory representation, and counseling. She also has experience in commercial and residential real estate matters and zoning appeals. Ms. Miranda regularly appears before state regulatory agencies, including the Connecticut Public Utility Regulatory Authority, the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, and the Connecticut Siting Council, on utility, telecommunications, and energy-related matters. She also handles administrative appeals of agency decisions to state courts. An important aspect of Ms. Miranda's practice also involves counseling clients on regulatory compliance matters.

Ms. Miranda regularly publishes and presents on matters of interest to the energy industry. Recently, she edited the book Capturing the Power of Electric Restructuring. She received her J.D., magna cum laude, from Quinnipiac University School of Law, her M.B.A. from the University of Connecticut, and her B.B.A. from Hofstra University.
