

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Jessie Gagnon, Marketing Specialist

Robinson & Cole LLP | (860) 541-2649, jgagnon@rc.com

Kathleen Furey Admitted to American College of Mortgage Attorneys

STAMFORD, CT (November 18, 2011) – Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that the American College of Mortgage Attorneys (ACMA) has admitted Kathleen M. Furey as a Fellow. Ms. Furey was inducted during the ACMA annual meeting in San Diego, California.

Ms. Furey is a partner in the firm's Real Estate Practice Group with more than 30 years of experience. She focuses her practice on real estate finance, loan restructuring, and affordable housing issues. Her lending experience includes representing national lenders in affordable housing transactions in the New York City Metropolitan area that include multifamily revenue bonds, Low Income Housing Tax Credits, New Markets Tax Credits, and multiple agency subsidy loans. Her most notable experience includes closing three of the first transactions under Louisiana's Road Home program, which was created to promote the rebuilding of New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina.

More about the American College of Mortgage Attorneys

Established in 1974, the ACMA seeks to improve and reform laws and procedures affecting real estate secured transactions and to raise the level of professional responsibility of lawyers practicing in this area. ACMA fellowship is by invitation only, and fellows include in-house and government lawyers and private practitioners, who are highly skilled and experienced in the preparation of real estate mortgages, lending transactions secured by real estate, and related practice, as well as prominent members of the academic community from each state. For more information, visit <http://www.acmaatty.org>.

More about Robinson & Cole LLP

Robinson & Cole is an Am Law 200 firm with approximately 225 lawyers in nine offices serving regional, national, and international clients, from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. Since 1845, Robinson & Cole has expanded to meet the changing needs of clients. The firm represents corporate, governmental, and nonprofit entities, as well as individual clients, in a wide range of matters, including corporate; business and insurance litigation; tax and tax-exempt; finance; public finance; land use, environmental and utilities, and real estate; health law; labor, employment, and benefits; intellectual property and technology; and government relations. For more information, please visit www.rc.com.

###