

Robinson & Cole Participates in Legal Food Frenzy for Massachusetts Food Banks

The Boston Bar Association recognized Robinson & Cole and other law firms and legal organizations for participating in the 2012 Legal Food Frenzy at a reception on June 27. Massachusetts Attorney General Martha Coakley, center, thanked participants at the reception for their achievements in raising funds and collecting food to benefit Merrimack Valley Food Bank, The Food Bank of Western Massachusetts, The Greater Boston Food Bank, and Worcester County Food Bank. Boston office receptionist Monica Vela, left, and summer intern Julie Tran, right, represented Robinson & Cole at the reception. Ms. Vela organized Robinson & Cole's participation in Legal Food Frenzy.
