

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Crystale Wozniak, Regional Marketing Manager
Robinson & Cole LLP | (617) 305-5446, cwozniak@rc.com

Robinson & Cole Welcomes New Real Estate Attorneys

NEW YORK, NY (May 19, 2011) – Robinson & Cole LLP is pleased to announce that real estate attorneys Kathleen M. Furey and Kevin C. George have joined the firm as residents in the firm’s Metro New York offices.

Kathleen M. Furey is a partner in the Real Estate Group, where she focuses on real estate finance and loan restructuring. With more than 30 years of experience, Ms. Furey has represented institutional lenders both locally and nationally and has closed construction loans in the New York City metropolitan area on behalf of national lenders, involving the coordination of multiple levels of financing combined with tax credit investors and subsidy funds from various city, state, and federal agencies. Ms. Furey’s practice also focuses on representing institutional lenders, including major national banks, with their problem loan portfolios, including loan workouts, restructuring, note sales, and foreclosures.

With a particular focus on affordable housing, Ms. Furey’s experience includes the representation of both lenders and developers through numerous affordable housing transactions, involving Multi-Family Revenue Bonds, Low Income Housing Tax Credits, New Markets Tax Credits, Go Zone Tax Credits, and Historic Tax Credits. She also represents banks issuing letters of credit to enhance bond issuances involving Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae permanent credit enhancements. Ms. Furey received her J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law and her B.A. from Hofstra University. She is admitted to practice in Connecticut and New York

Kevin C. George is counsel in the Real Estate Group, where he focuses on leasing transactions, multistate acquisitions, and finance transactions, with an emphasis on affordable housing. Mr. George has represented a number of financial institutions and other lenders in a variety of commercial mortgage loan transactions, including conduit, construction, affordable housing, letter of credit enhanced bond transactions, and purchase money transactions. His experience also includes the financing and disposition of shopping center properties, as well as outparcels development, sale, financing and restriction via recorded declarations, and leasing and subleasing on behalf of both landlords and tenants, including data centers and office and retail spaces.

Mr. George received his J.D. from St. John’s University School of Law and his B.S., summa cum laude, from Northeastern University. He is admitted to practice in Connecticut and New York.

More about Robinson & Cole LLP

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has 225 attorneys and 225 professional staff in nine offices to serve regional, national, and global business clients in multiple practice areas, as well as individual clients and governmental and nonprofit entities. Further information is available at rc.com.

###

885 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10022