

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Erin Walsh, Marketing Coordinator
860-541-2611
ewalsh@rc.com

Connecticut Law Firm Holiday Card Designed By Children
Robinson & Cole's 2nd Annual Holiday Card Inspired by Children

Hartford — November 27, 2006 —Robinson & Cole turned to the sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces and nephews of the firm's attorneys, lobbyists and staff to design the firm's 2006 holiday card.

Children between the ages of 4 and 14 were called upon to draw a winter scene reflecting the holiday season. With 32 entries, four of the illustrations were selected to appear on the firm's holiday card. The winners include:

- Hannah, age 10, daughter of Paralegal Doreen Wiese
- Brian, age 8, son of Attorney Jean Tomasco
- Jillian, age 6, granddaughter of Library Assistant J. Angela Kennedy
- Evan, age 5, son of Attorney Gregory Varga

(more)

Page 2

Eric Daniels, Managing Partner will be visiting each child's elementary school to acknowledge each winner as well as donate $2,500 to the child's school. "The response from our clients on our holiday card last year was outstanding and we are delighted to once again have been able to reach out to children to help design this year's holiday card," comments Daniels.

Note: See attached PDF to view the 2005 Robinson & Cole Holiday Card.

Founded in 1845, the law firm of Robinson & Cole has nearly 215 attorneys and over 250 professional staff and serves regional, national, and global business clients. Further information is available at www.rc.com.

###