

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Erin K. Walsh
Marketing Coordinator
(860) 541-2611
ewalsh@rc.com

South Glastonbury Student Helps
Law Firm Design Holiday Card

Robinson & Cole looks to children in designing 2006 holiday card

Hartford, CT —December 14, 2006—The law firm of Robinson & Cole, with offices in Connecticut and Massachusetts turned to the sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces and nephews of the firm’s attorneys, lobbyists and staff to design the firm’s 2006 holiday card. Children between the ages of 4 and 14 were called upon to draw a winter scene reflecting the holiday season. Four of the illustrations were selected to appear on the firm’s holiday card.

Kindergartner Evan Varga’s illustration was one of the four selected for Robinson & Cole’s 2006 holiday card. Evan is the son of Robinson & Cole Insurance Group Partner, Gregory P. Varga.

On behalf of Evan’s contribution to the design of the firm’s holiday card, Robinson & Cole’s Managing Partner, Eric Daniels, visited Hopewell School to donate $2500 to the elementary school. “We are delighted to have been able to incorporate children’s illustrations in our firm’s holiday card again this year. The response from our clients has been outstanding,” comments Daniels on the firm’s 2006 holiday card.

(more)

Photo #1: Robinson & Cole Managing Partner Eric Daniels with the family of Evan Varga who holds the framed R&C holiday card. L to R: Eric Daniels, Evan's parents, Greg and Tara Varga and Evan with sister, Olivia.

Photo #2: Robinson & Cole Managing Partner Eric Daniels presents a gift to a holiday card winner, Evan Varga, at the Hopewell School in South Glastonbury, Connecticut with his classmates and principal, Kate Carter, in attendance.

Photo #3: Principal, Kate Carter accepts check to Hopewell School in the amount of $2,500 from Robinson & Cole Managing Partner Eric Daniels. From L to R: Eric Daniels, Evan's parents Gregory and Tara Varga, Kate Carter and, in front, Evan and Olivia Varga.

Photo #4: Robinson & Cole LLP Managing Partner Eric Daniels, Evan Varga, holding a framed R&C Holiday card, and Hopewell School Principal Kate Carter.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has nearly 215 attorneys and over 250 professional staff and serves regional, national, and global business clients. Further information is available at www.rc.com.

###