

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Erin K. Walsh
Marketing Coordinator
(860) 541-2611
ewalsh@rc.com

West Medford Student Helps
Boston Law Firm Design Holiday Card

Robinson & Cole looks to children in designing 2006 holiday card

Boston, MA —December 18, 2006—The law firm of Robinson & Cole turned to the sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces and nephews of the firm’s attorneys, lobbyists and staff to design the firm’s 2006 holiday card. Children between the ages of 4 and 14 were called upon to draw a winter scene reflecting the holiday season. Four of the illustrations were selected to appear on the firm’s holiday card.

West Medford Saint Raphael School first grader Jillian Casey’s illustration was one of the four selected for Robinson & Cole’s 2006 holiday card. Jillian is the granddaughter of Robinson & Cole Library Assistant Angela Kennedy.

On behalf of Jillian’s contribution to the design of the firm’s holiday card, Robinson & Cole’s Boston Partner, David Wilson, visited Saint Raphael’s to donate $2500 to the school. “We are delighted to have been able to incorporate children’s illustrations in our firm’s holiday card again this year. The response from our clients has been outstanding,” comments Robinson & Cole Managing Partner Eric Daniels on the firm’s 2006 holiday card.

Photo #1: Robinson & Cole Partner David B. Wilson, presents Saint Raphael first grader Jillian Casey with a framed Robinson & Cole holiday card that Jillian helped design as her father and brother, Joseph & John Casey look on. A check for $2,500 was presented to the school on behalf of Jillian.

Photo #2: Robinson & Cole Partner David B. Wilson, with Jillian Casey, winner of Robinson & Cole’s holiday card design contest and Jillian’s grandmother, Angela Kennedy, Robinson & Cole Library Assistant. A check for $2,500 was presented to the school on behalf of Jillian.

Photo #3: Robinson & Cole holiday card contest winner and Saint Raphael first grader, Jillian Casey with family—grandmother, Angela Kennedy, father, Joseph Casey, mother, Susan Casey and brother, John Casey. A check for $2,500 was presented to the school on behalf of Jillian.

Photo #4: Robinson & Cole holiday card contest winner and Saint Raphael first grader, Jillian Casey with — grandmother, R&C library assistant Angela Kennedy, father, Joseph Casey, mother, Susan Casey, principal Tracy Young, R&C Partner David Wilson and brother, John Casey. A check for $2,500 was presented to the school on behalf of Jillian.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has nearly 215 attorneys and over 250 professional staff and serves regional, national, and global business clients. Further information is available at www.rc.com.

###