Robinson & Cole Partner Elected to the Board of Directors of the Association for Corporate Growth (Connecticut Chapter)

Stamford, CT — June 13, 2006 — Eric J. Dale, chair of Robinson & Cole's Emerging Companies, Private Equity and Venture Capital Group, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG). As a member of the firm's Corporate Practice and a director of the Connecticut Venture Group, Mr. Dale brings to ACG a wealth of experience in the arena of transactional and counseling requirements of middle market businesses.

The Association for Corporate Growth (www.acg.org) is a global association for professionals involved in corporate growth, corporate development, and mergers and acquisitions for mid to large companies.

Robinson & Cole's Emerging Companies, Private Equity and Venture Capital Group is an interdisciplinary team of lawyers who advise investors and fast growth companies in a number of industries, including technology, consumer products, retail, manufacturing and specialty finance, regarding entity formation, equity compensation plans, seed, venture and private equity capital formation, business and financing transactions and restructurings, stock and asset acquisitions, joint ventures, licensing and strategic alliances, noncompetition agreements and employment matters, and other collaborative arrangements and business issues.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation, as well as in emerging areas of the law like crisis management, bioterrorism and e-commerce.
