Robinson & Cole Partner Installed as Treasurer of the Fairfield County Bar Association

Stamford, CT — June 22, 2006 — Eric J. Dale, chair of Robinson & Cole's Emerging Companies, Private Equity and Venture Capital Group, was installed as Treasurer of the Fairfield County Bar Association at its annual meeting on June 8, 2006. Mr. Dale has been on the board of the Fairfield County Bar Association for several years and is also cochair of its Business Law Section.

The Fairfield County Bar Association, Inc. has been in existence for over sixty years and is known for its outstanding legal educational programs, involvement in community projects, and addressing the needs of its members. The Association regularly sponsors more than 60 seminars annually, featuring experts from both inside and outside the Association.

Robinson & Cole's Emerging Companies, Private Equity and Venture Capital Group is an interdisciplinary team of lawyers who advise investors and fast growth companies in a number of industries, including technology, consumer products, retail, manufacturing and specialty finance, regarding entity formation, equity compensation plans, seed, venture and private equity capital formation, business and financing transactions and restructurings, stock and asset acquisitions, joint ventures, licensing and strategic alliances, noncompetition agreements and employment matters, and other collaborative arrangements and business issues.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation, as well as in emerging areas of the law like crisis management, bioterrorism and e-commerce.
