FEDERATION OF DEFENSE AND CORPORATE COUNSEL HONORS REBECCA LEVY-SACHS

HARTFORD, CT (August 11, 2010) – At the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel’s (FDCC) Annual Meeting on July 30, 2010, Robinson & Cole partner Rebecca Levy-Sachs received the John Alan Appleman Award for her work as Chair of the Property Insurance Section. Each year the FDCC honors the substantive law section chair who, in the work of his or her section, has made the most outstanding contribution toward the advancement of the educational goals of the FDCC. The FDCC promotes knowledge, fellowship, and professionalism among its members as they pursue a balanced justice system and represent those in need of defense in civil lawsuits.

Ms. Levy-Sachs is a partner in Robinson & Cole’s Insurance and Reinsurance Group and the managing attorney for the firm’s Florida office which is located in Sarasota. Her practice is focused on first-party property insurance and includes commercial time element coverage, law and ordinance coverage, and losses related to various perils, including mold, sinkholes, asbestos, environmental cleanup, fire, and windstorm. She is also a certified Windstorm Umpire through the Windstorm Insurance Network.
