UCONN Health Care Management Advisory Board

Hartford – March 6, 2007 – R&C Health Care Lawyer Tracey E. Scraba was recently named to the UCONN Health Care Management Advisory Board. This Board is comprised of senior health care leaders representing the many sectors of the health care industry. Board members serve in an advisory capacity with respect to academic programs, research initiatives, and outreach activities. Board members also serve as mentors for students participating in the program.

Ms. Scraba represents hospitals, physician groups, continuing care retirement communities, nursing homes, community providers, and other provider entities. She provides legal counsel on a full range of transactional and regulatory health law issues, including contracting, fraud and abuse, tax exemption, licensure, government investigations, medical staff, joint ventures, affiliations, physician recruitment, reimbursement, and privacy of medical information. She also counsels clients on risk management issues.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 215 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in seven offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance, and litigation.
