Robinson & Cole Expands Trial, Appellate & Advocacy Group

John P. Malloy Joins Hartford Office

Hartford, CT — September 16, 2005 The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that John P. Malloy has joined the firm as Counsel in the Trial, Appellate and Advocacy Group in the Hartford office.

Mr. Malloy comes to Robinson & Cole with extensive litigation experience involving the representation of insurers at both the trial and appellate levels. In addition to his insurance coverage expertise, he has experience in complex multi-party commercial litigation.

Mr. Malloy received his B.A. from the Williams College and his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School. He is admitted to practice in Connecticut, Virginia, Washington DC, Philadelphia and New Jersey.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation, as well as in emerging areas of the law like crisis management, bioterrorism and e-commerce.
