

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information, Contact:

Daniela Castillo, Marketing Communications Coordinator
Robinson & Cole LLP
860-541-2717
dcastillo@rc.com

Robinson & Cole Women Attorneys Host Inaugural “Sweet Sensations” Benefit

Stamford – April 30, 2008 – Robinson & Cole’s women attorneys recently hosted their inaugural “Sweet Sensations” benefit at Chocopologie in Norwalk, Connecticut, benefiting Kids in Crisis, a nonprofit organization. All guests were asked to bring a “summer” donation to support the organization, such as sunscreen and beach toys for the children.

With over 40 women in attendance, this unique event combined an evening of networking with chocolate cooking classes, all for a great cause. Guests enjoyed sampling and creating their very own delicious truffles to take home.

About Kids in Crisis

Founded in 1978, Kids in Crisis is Connecticut’s only facility for children from newborn to age 17, struggling with a wide range of issues, including abuse, neglect, abandonment, family health issues, and family conflict. The organization provides free, temporary shelter, therapeutic counseling, comprehensive medical care, and specialized educational support.

Left to right: Darlene Lee from Builder Marketing Solutions and Robinson & Cole attorneys Tyisha Hovanec, Megan Baroni, and Kirstin Etela attended the first-ever “Sweet Sensations” benefit hosted by Robinson & Cole’s women attorneys.

Left to right: Robinson & Cole attorneys Megan Baroni, Pamela Elkow, Regina Sweeney, and Effie Aquila Patrick during the first-ever “Sweet Sensations” benefit hosted by Robinson & Cole’s women attorneys.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices, such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance, and litigation. Further information is available at www.rc.com.

###