Robinson & Cole Real Estate Partner Elected Vice Chair of CBA

Hartford — June 3, 2008 — The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that Real Estate partner Edward S. Hill has been elected as Vice Chair of the Connecticut Bar Association Real Property Section for the 2008-2009 year.

Previously, Mr. Hill has served as Treasurer and before that for two years as Secretary. The Real Property Section has over 1,000 members and is one of the largest sections of the Connecticut Bar Association.

Mr. Hill's practice covers the full spectrum of real estate matters, including representation of sellers, buyers, and developers of commercial, industrial, and multifamily properties as well as representation of landlords and tenants of those types of property. Mr. Hill has practiced for more than 25 years.

He received his B.A. in English from Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, and earned his J.D. degree, with honors, from the University of Connecticut School of Law.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices, such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance, and litigation.
