Robinson & Cole Joins Model Law Firm Sustainability Policy Project as the 10th Pilot Firm

Hartford — June 11, 2008 — The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that they have joined forces with the American Bar Association Section of Environmental, Energy, and Resources' Climate Change, Sustainable Development, and Ecosystems Committee and will take part in the Model Law Firm Sustainability Policy Project as part of their commitment to continue being good organizational citizens.

Robinson & Cole is the 10th Pilot Firm to join this initiative nationally. The firm's involvement was spearheaded by Environmental and Utilities partner Pamela Elkow and Land Use partner Michael Giaimo and has the full support of the firm's managing committee. The firm's new sustainability policy will be in effect as of June 16, 2008 and will incorporate each of the project's three segments - Economic success: the wise use of financial resources; Social responsibility: respect for people; and Environmental responsibility: respect for life; the wise management and use of natural resources.
