Robinson & Cole Counsel Appointed to Advisory Board of UConn's new Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurship Law Clinic

Hartford – October 9, 2007 – Robinson & Cole Counsel Amy Span Wergeles has been named to the Advisory Board of the new Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurship Law Clinic at the University of Connecticut Law School.

Practicing in the firm's Business Section, Ms. Wergeles focuses her practice on international and domestic proprietary rights protection, including trademarks, copyrights, and domain names; licensing and technology transactions; and computer law. She has practiced intellectual property and technology law for more than 15 years, first in Washington, D.C., and since 1997, in Connecticut.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation.
