Robinson & Cole Scavenger Hunt Helps New Attorneys Learn About Firm
Robinson & Cole Welcomes Fall Associates with Scavenger Hunt in Hartford Office

Hartford — October 2, 2007 — Robinson & Cole welcomed incoming Fall Associates with a scavenger hunt that took place in the firm's Hartford office.

Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce sixteen new associates to the firm, including: Matthew P. Jasinski, Shawna Harrison Kohl, Michele L. Maresca, Joel C. Norwood, Scott E. Sebastian, Matthew S. Spaeder, John M. Tanski, Rita B. Trivedi, and B. Moses Vargas, Adam Anderson and Justin R. Clark, all located in the firm's Hartford office. Karl P. Baker, Christopher S. Feudo, and Claire Newton will be located in the Boston office and Tyisha S. Hovanec will be resident in the firm's Stamford office.

The scavenger hunt was designed with the specific purpose of acquainting the new attorneys with Robinson & Cole's culture, history, and firm departments. Clues based on these factors were handed out to each new attorney and scavenger hunt items were placed in different departments throughout the building. While the game had a purpose, it was also meant to be a fun way to introduce the new attorneys to the firm and to each other as well.
