Robinson & Cole Counsel to Serve Second Term as Chair of CBA's Intellectual Property Section

Hartford – October 22, 2007 – Robinson & Cole Counsel Amy Span Wergeles has been asked to serve a second term as Chair of the Connecticut Bar Association's Intellectual Property Section.

Practicing in the firm's Business Section, Ms. Wergeles focuses her practice on international and domestic proprietary rights protection, including trademarks, copyrights, and domain names; licensing and technology transactions; and computer law. She has practiced intellectual property and technology law for more than 15 years, first in Washington, D.C., and since 1997, in Connecticut.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation.
