Connecticut Law Firm Holiday Card Designed By Children
Robinson & Cole's 3rd Annual Holiday Card Inspired by Children

Hartford — December 3, 2007 —Robinson & Cole turned to the sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces and nephews of the firm's attorneys, lobbyists and staff to design the firm's 2007 holiday card.

Children between the ages of 4 and 14 were called upon to draw a winter scene reflecting the holiday season. With 29 entries, four of the illustrations were selected to appear on the firm's holiday card. The winners are:

- John Henry Casey, 5 years old, grandson of Library Assistant Angela Kennedy - Boston office
- Madison Kelley, 6 years old, niece of Attorney Carla Moynihan - Boston office
- Dylan Smith, 7 years old, son of Attorney Rhonda Tobin - Hartford office
- Samantha Kane, 6 years old, daughter of Attorney John Kan - Stamford office

During the first two weeks of December Managing Partner Eric Daniels in Hartford and Partners Pamela Elkow in Stamford and Lawrence Heffernan in Boston will be visiting each child's elementary school to acknowledge each winner as well as donate $2,500 to the child's school.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation.
