Robinson & Cole Announces Attorney Promotions

Hartford – December 10, 2007 – Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce the promotion of two attorneys to Counsel.

John P. Casey, a member of the firm's LandLaw Section, is resident in the firm's Hartford office, and Katherine C. Glynn, a member of the firm's Trial & Appellate Section, is resident in the firm's New York City office. The promotions will be effective as of January 1st.

John P. Casey's practice includes land use and environmental matters, with particular emphasis on planning, zoning, wetlands permits and approvals, and related litigation.

Katherine C. Glynn's practice includes a wide array of commercial and employment litigation matters. She represents employers in matters involving non-competition agreements, discrimination and wrongful termination claims and employee layoffs.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation.
