Robinson & Cole Labor & Employment Associate Elected to CBA House of Delegates

Hartford — June 30, 2008 — The law firm of Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that Labor & Employment attorney Nicole A. Bernabo was recently elected to the Connecticut Bar Association's (CBA) House of Delegates from District 12. The three-year term will begin on July 1, 2008.

Nicole Bernabo's practice includes public and private sector labor relations, labor and employment law, and related litigation. In 2004, the Connecticut Law Tribune named her as one of the Top Leaders of the Law in the category of "Development of the Law."

She is currently a member of the Board of Editors of the Connecticut Bar Journal and cochair of the Education Committee for the Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice Section of the American Bar Association. Ms. Bernabo also serves on the board of directors for Hartford Food System, one of the nation's oldest organizations dedicated to fighting hunger and improving nutrition on the grassroots level. She is a docent-in-training at the Wadsworth Atheneum as well.

Ms. Bernabo received her B.A. in politics, French, and Spanish from Salve Regina University, magna cum laude, and her J.D. from Suffolk University Law School.
