Robinson & Cole Adds New Counsel to Health Law Practice

New Counsel Joins Firm's Boston Office

Boston — September 3, 2008 — Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that Kimberly Troland has joined the firm's Boston office as a Counsel in the Health Law practice group.

Ms. Troland provides legal counsel on a full range of transactional and regulatory health law issues, with special emphasis on fraud and abuse, clinical integration and anti-trust, corporate governance, medical staff issues, graduate medical education issues, managed care and third party payor contracting, HIPAA and health information privacy, and risk management, patient care, and medical ethics matters.

Prior to joining Robinson & Cole, Ms. Troland worked as Associate General Counsel at Tufts Medical Center in Boston, where she advised physicians, other clinical and administrative staff, and management, and provided a broad array of legal services to the academic medical center and its affiliates, including its physician organizations. She also served as General Counsel to New England Quality Care Alliance, Inc., a community physician network affiliated with the medical center, and as counsel to the medical center's Ethics Committee and Child Protection Team. During Tufts Medical Center's affiliation with Lifespan Corporation, Ms. Troland also provided legal services to Lifespan and its provider affiliates in Rhode Island.

Ms. Troland received her B.A., cum laude, in history and political science from Tufts University and her J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law. As an undergraduate, she studied for a semester at the Budapest University of Economics, and prior to law school, she worked for a year at the American Chamber of Commerce in Budapest.

Ms. Troland is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, the American Bar Association, and the Boston Bar Association.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation.
