

Blue Sky's Rio Screened at Connecticut Science Center

Tax partner Richard W. Tomeo, left, and real estate partner Steven L. Elbaum attended a special screening of the new animated film Rio by Blue Sky Studios at the Connecticut Science Center in Hartford on April 4, 2011. Robinson & Cole attorneys negotiated tax credits and other incentives in 2009 for the animation studio to relocate from White Plains, New York, to a 100,000-plus square-foot studio in Greenwich, Connecticut.
