Robinson & Cole Announces New Officers

HARTFORD, CT (June 23, 2011) – Robinson & Cole LLP is pleased to announce two new officers have joined the firm, Bali K. Samra, human resources officer and Robert T. Inglis, director of finance. Ms. Samra and Mr. Inglis both report to Howard K. Shafer, who took over as the firm’s chief operating officer earlier this year.

“We are excited to welcome Ms. Samra and Mr. Inglis to the firm,” said John B. Lynch, Jr., the firm’s managing partner. “Adding them to our executive team allows the firm to streamline our administrative departments, helping us to work more efficiently and serve our clients better. We look forward to the contributions they are sure to make with the wealth of experience they bring with them.”

Bali K. Samra

In addition to extensive human resources management experience, Ms. Samra comes to Robinson & Cole with experience in international business, merger and acquisition integration, and organization design. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Samra was assistant vice president of Human Resources in International Wealth Management at the Hartford Financial Services Group.

Robert T. Inglis

Mr. Inglis joins Robinson & Cole with more than 20 years of financial accounting experience. He has overall management responsibility for the firm’s financial operations, including partnership accounting, firm tax returns and filings, accounts payable, accounts receivable, billing, collections, and financial reporting. Prior to joining the firm, he was vice president of Accounting and Finance at Futurity First Financial Corporation, Inc.
