

At the Cutting Edge 2010: Land Use Law from The Urban Lawyer

Edited by Dwight H. Merriam

"At the Cutting Edge 2010 is a great resource—for teachers, students, and practitioners—who want a comprehensive selection of insightful commentary on the latest hot topics in land use." Daniel R. Mandelker, Howard A. Stamper Professor of Law, Washington University in St. Louis School of Law

"Those of us who practice land use law and teach and write on urbanism enjoy the At the Cutting Edge series as a way to get the most up-to-date perspectives on a broad range of the leading land use issues of the day. Good job!" Charles R. Wolfe, Attorney at Law, Seattle, Washington

An essential resource for practitioners, planning professionals, and students, this book provides information and insight into current issues affecting land use law. A compilation of the most recent State and Local Government Law Section committee reports from The Urban Lawyer, this book covers a wide range of issues:

- cellular telecommunications facilities
- exactions and impact fees
- green buildings and greenhouse gas reductions
- the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act
- due process in takings and land use litigation
- official immunity in zoning decisions
- fair housing issues
- the regulation of vacant property
- eminent domain issues
- ethical issues in land use
- comprehensive planning law
