Robinson+Cole Lawyers Included in Benchmark Litigation's Top 250 Women in Litigation

Linda L. Morkan and Rhonda J. Tobin two of the four Connecticut lawyers named to national list

HARTFORD, CT (August 5, 2014) – Benchmark Litigation has named Robinson+Cole lawyers Linda L. Morkan and Rhonda J. Tobin among its Top 250 Women in Litigation for 2014. In this national list published on July 15, 2014, they represent two of the four female litigators chosen in Connecticut.

“It is an honor to have two of our own recognized in this national publication,” said Bradford S. Babbitt, co-chair of the firm’s Litigation Section. “Rhonda and Linda are integral members of our litigation team and are highly deserving of this recognition. Rhonda has close to 25 years of experience handling a variety of insurance litigation matters and co-chairs our litigation section with me. Linda devotes her practice to appellate advocacy and has worked on more than 175 appeals around the United States.”

Benchmark Litigation's Top 250 Women in Litigation recognizes the accomplishments of America’s leading female trial lawyers from all 50 states plus the District of Columbia. The decision to feature a distinguished female litigator is based primarily on targeted research completed during the U.S. Benchmark Litigation review process, with peer review and overall depth of the individual’s litigation career important factors.

Benchmark Litigation's editorial includes the following excerpt:

Robinson & Cole is home to two of this year’s stars: Linda Morkan and new addition Rhonda Tobin. Morkan devotes her practice to appellate-level work and is a member of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers. Tobin is the co-chair of the firm’s litigation team and focuses on insurance-related claims. Her practice is informed by prior experience with property claims, including litigation arising out of the September 11 attacks.
