

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Aileen Bastos, Marketing Communications Coordinator
Robinson & Cole LLP | (860) 541-2775, abastos@rc.com

Governor Appoints Attorney Eric Daniels to iQuilt Board

HARTFORD, CT (July 14, 2011) Governor Dannel Malloy recently appointed Eric D. Daniels, a partner with the law firm of Robinson & Cole, to the board of The iQuilt Partnership, Inc. The iQuilt is an exciting new urban redevelopment initiative. To attract more people to the city's many cultural destinations, the project envisions a downtown Hartford that better uses Bushnell Park with a vibrant and innovative pedestrian network. "It is my honor and privilege to accept Governor Malloy's appointment to the iQuilt board," says Mr. Daniels. "I have followed the early progress of the iQuilt through my involvement on the board of The Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts, which is where the idea of the iQuilt was first hatched, and I'm thrilled to be a part of the effort and to help ensure its success going forward."

The iQuilt project seeks to create a more walkable, sustainable, and welcoming downtown as well as to improve the city's cultural network and to strengthen its economy and workforce. In addition to the iQuilt and Bushnell boards, Mr. Daniels also serves on the boards of Achieve Hartford!, the Greater Hartford Arts Council, Interval House, New Horizons, and the Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art.

More about Robinson & Cole LLP

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has 225 attorneys and 225 professional staff in nine offices to serve regional, national, and global business clients in multiple practice areas, as well as individual clients and governmental and nonprofit entities. Further information is available at rc.com.

###