Robinson+Cole Lawyer To Serve as Co-chair of Boston Bar Association Section

Matthew J. Lawlor agrees to two-year term as co-chair of the BBA's Real Estate Section

BOSTON, MA (June 11, 2015) – Robinson+Cole real estate lawyer Matthew J. Lawlor has agreed to serve a two-year term as co-chair of the Boston Bar Association's (BBA) Real Estate Section, effective June 16.

The BBA's Real Estate Section addresses various areas of real estate law, from bankruptcy to zoning, and hosts programs and discussions on issues including land use, environmental, development, financing, and eminent domain. Over the years, Mr. Lawlor has served in multiple capacities on several committees of the BBA's Real Estate Section, including the Land Use and Development Committee and the Pro Bono Committee, and as CLE coordinator. He was asked to serve as co-chair of the section this spring.

Mr. Lawlor represents lenders, municipal authorities and agencies, developers, nonprofits, and commercial landlords and tenants in matters involving affordable housing, transit-oriented and mixed-use development, commercial real estate development and leasing, and land use and planning law. Mr. Lawlor works extensively with the firm's representation of the Congress for the New Urbanism/New England Chapter as that organization's pro bono counsel and treasurer and is the president of WalkBoston's Board of Directors.
