Matthew Miklave Named One of “The Nation’s Top 100 Most Powerful Employment Attorneys”

Labor and employment lawyer recognized by LawDragon.com and Human Resources Magazine for fifth consecutive year

NEW YORK, NY (September 2, 2014) – Robinson+Cole labor and employment lawyer Matthew T. Miklave was once again recognized by LawDragon.com and Human Resources Magazine as being one of “The Nation’s Top 100 Most Powerful Employment Attorneys.” Mr. Miklave first earned this recognition in 2010, making this the fifth consecutive year he has earned this honor. Selections are based on LawDragon’s editorial research as well as by submissions from firms and other visitors to Lawdragon.com. Information about LawDragon’s selection process can be read here.

Mr. Miklave has represented a broad spectrum of publicly traded and privately held companies, municipal corporations, and nonprofit organizations in an array of employment and labor relations matters. He represents employers and management in all areas of civil rights, employment relations, and traditional labor law, including issues arising under federal and state antidiscrimination, antiretaliation, noncompete and restrictive covenants, labor, wage and hour, plant closing, family leave, retirement, election, and civil rights statutes.
