ROBINSON & COLE'S NAUGHTON, MIRER, AND SHARUBINA
NAMED PRO BONO LEGAL CHAMPIONS
BY THE CENTER FOR CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY

HARTFORD, CT (May 21, 2010) – The law firm of Robinson & Cole LLP is pleased to announce attorneys Megan R. Naughton, Joshua S. Mirer, and Natalia A. Sharubina were named Pro Bono Legal Champions by the Center for Children Advocacy (CCA) for their pro bono case support to help CCA with immigrant children and family clients.

The Center for Children's Advocacy is a non-profit organization dedicated to protecting the legal rights of poor children in Connecticut through legal advocacy and representation. "CCA's legal services help poor children get the health, education and related services they need to stay in school and become healthy, successful adults. Our attorneys provide legal services for individual clients as well as support systemic improvements on behalf of thousands of children throughout the state," noted Martha Stone, CCA Executive Director.

Ms. Naughton, Mr. Mirer, and Ms. Sharubina are members of Robinson & Cole's immigration practice group where they practice primarily in the area of U.S. immigration law, focusing on business immigration.
