

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Jessica A. Pace, Communications Specialist

Robinson+Cole | 860.541.2646, jpace@rc.com

Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to Association of Workplace Investigators Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (January 16, 2018) – The Association of Workplace Investigators (AWI), a professional membership association for attorneys, human resource professionals, private investigators, and many others who conduct, manage, or have a professional interest in workplace investigations, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Britt-Marie K. Cole-Johnson to its Board of Directors.

Ms. Cole-Johnson is a member of Robinson+Cole's Labor and Employment Group. She focuses her practice on counseling private sector employers, ranging from NYSE and NASDAQ companies, multinational corporations, nonprofit organizations, and educational institutions to manufacturers, in all areas of employment law. Ms. Cole-Johnson routinely handles sensitive, high-risk personnel issues and workplace investigations as well as compliance and training. She also serves as a trusted advisor to Boards of Directors faced with crises, including investigations, executive transitions, ethics issues, and employment-related matters.

With over 600 members in 35 US states and territories, Canada, Australia, and other countries, AWI's mission is to promote and enhance the quality of impartial workplace investigations. Ms. Cole-Johnson is a frequent speaker and faculty member for AWI's training and education programs about conducting impartial workplace investigations.

About Robinson+Cole

Robinson+Cole is a service mark of Robinson & Cole LLP, an Am Law 200 firm with more than 200 lawyers in nine offices serving regional, national, and international clients, from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. For more information, please visit www.rc.com.

###