Robinson+Cole Partner to Chair 90th Anniversary Human Relations Award Banquet

Eric Daniels continues his long-standing support of community organizations

HARTFORD, CT (January 20, 2017) – Robinson+Cole lawyer Eric D. Daniels is chairing the 90th Anniversary Human Relations Award Banquet, hosted by the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ), on April 20, 2017, at the Marriott Downtown in Hartford.

The annual banquet includes the presentation of awards to individuals in the community who have distinguished themselves by treating others with open-mindedness and respect, showing leadership by example, and demonstrating diligence in their fight for human rights and equality. This year's honorees are Thomas O. Barnes, chairman of the Board of Directors of Barnes Group Inc.; Jeff L. Hubbard, market president of KeyBank for the Connecticut and western Massachusetts market; and Theresa Younger, president and CEO of Ms. Foundation.

Mr. Daniels dedicates his time and skills to many community organizations and has previously led other major fundraising events for several Hartford-area nonprofits, including Interval House's annual gala in 2016; Hartford Hospital's signature fundraiser, the Black & Red, in 2015; and HARC's annual auctions in 2010 and 2011.

About NCCJ

Founded in 1927, the NCCJ is a human relations organization that promotes inclusion and acceptance by providing education and advocacy while building communities that are respectful and just for all.
