Robinson+Cole Announces the Addition of New York Based Government Affairs Firm, The Roffe Group P.C.

The addition of the group further bolsters Robinson+Cole's government affairs presence in New York

(January 10, 2022) – Robinson+Cole is pleased to announce the addition of The Roffe Group, P.C., a leading New York-based government affairs firm since 1998. The new entity will be called The Roffe Group of Robinson+Cole, and will continue to be headed by Andrew Roffe, who has been a Robinson+Cole partner since 2002. The addition of the group is a continuation of the firm's efforts to expand its footprint in New York State government and regulatory representation.

"Andy Roffe continues to be a valued partner at Robinson+Cole and a champion for his government relations group which has collaborated with Robinson+Cole lawyers on New York State matters for nearly two decades," said Rhonda J. Tobin, Managing Partner for Robinson+Cole. "The addition of The Roffe Group adds significant depth to our New York government affairs practice and strengthens a key area of historical focus for the firm."

Joining Roffe will be Managing Director, Christine Rutigliano; Director of Government Relations, Patrick Zlogar; Director of Policy and Regulatory Affairs, Alexandra Moore; Director of Legislative Affairs, Caley Taratus and Office Administrator, Allison Sheedy. In addition to serving as President of The Roffe Group of Robinson+Cole, Roffe will continue to serve as a partner of Robinson+Cole and lead its Administrative Law Group, a cross-disciplinary practice interfacing with all areas of the firm, including health care, energy, insurance and real estate.

"The Roffe Group and Robinson+Cole joining together is a natural evolution of a partnership the two firms have enjoyed for years," said Andrew Roffe. "As more and more clients seek regional approaches to addressing opportunities and challenges, combining our collective experience on a wide range of issues will be a major benefit to our clients moving forward."

The team has spent more than three decades representing a broad spectrum of clients, including Fortune 500 companies, professional associations, local governments, not-for-profit companies, and other commercial entities doing business in New York State and its municipalities.

About The Roffe Group of Robinson+Cole
