NLRB Delays Employee Notice-Posting Deadline to January 31, 2012

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has postponed the implementation date for its Final Rule requiring employers to post notices of their employees' rights under the National Labor Relations Act to January 31, 2012. The NLRB announced that the delay is to allow for enhanced education and outreach to employers, particularly those who operate small- and medium-sized businesses. No other changes in the rule, or in the form or content of the notice, were made.
