Robinson+Cole Lawyer to Lead Connecticut Asian Pacific American Bar Association

Dan A. Brody becomes the youngest lawyer to assume the role of president

HARTFORD, CT (October 23, 2019) – Robinson+Cole Business Litigation Group lawyer Dan A. Brody has been elected president of the Connecticut Asian Pacific American Bar Association (CAPABA) for the 2019-2020 term. Mr. Brody was installed during the CAPABA Annual Gala Dinner on October 16, 2019 in New Haven, Connecticut. He is the youngest lawyer to assume the role of CAPABA President.

Mr. Brody is a member of Robinson+Cole's Litigation Section, including the Business Litigation Group and the Government Enforcement and White-Collar Defense, and Internal Investigations and Corporate Compliance Teams. He focuses his practice on complex business litigation matters, government and internal investigations, corporate compliance, and criminal defense.

An affiliate of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association, CAPABA's mission is to support Asian Pacific American attorneys and communities and those interested in Asian Pacific American legal issues throughout the state of Connecticut. Mr. Brody previously served in the role of CAPABA Vice President and is co-chair of its Hartford Regional Committee.
