Robinson+Cole Lawyers Appointed to Connecticut Bar Association Young Lawyers Section Leadership Roles

HARTFORD, CT (June 6, 2018) – The Connecticut Bar Association Young Lawyers Section (CBA-YLS) has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyers Amanda Gordon Schreiber and Alisha N. Sullivan to leadership roles.

Amanda Gordon Schreiber has been elected to serve as the CBA-YLS Chair-elect. She is a member of Robinson+Cole's Health and Benefits Litigation Group, focusing her practice on claims and litigation related to health insurance, disability insurance, and life insurance coverage with an emphasis on the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). She has experience litigating matters in state and federal courts, as well as arbitration proceedings across the country. Ms. Gordon Schreiber will eventually, pending annual election results, be elevated to lead the CBA-YLS as Chair in 2019.

Alisha N. Sullivan, a member of Robinson+Cole's Employee Benefits and Compensation Group, has been named the chair of the CBA-YLS Tax Committee. In addition, Ms. Sullivan was presented with a CBA-YLS Star of the Year Award in recognition of her previous role as co-chair of the section's Women in the Law Committee. The committee plays a key role in planning the annual Pathways to Leadership for Women Lawyers dinner. Hosted in partnership with the CBA Women in the Law Section, the signature event includes the presentation of the Ladder Award that recognizes a female attorney in Connecticut who has demonstrated exceptional leadership affecting women. Ms. Sullivan was instrumental in the planning and presentation of the Ladder Award recognition as well as the CBA-YLS Women's Annual Golf Event, and other continuing legal education (CLE) opportunities geared toward women lawyers.
